

FACTS FOR OUR READERS.
Follow Nature and Keep Well, a Good Rule.
THE QUESTION IS IMPORTANT, ARE YOU PREPARED FOR SPRING?
If Not, Here Is Some Very Necessary Information for You.

Nature will soon begin her annual struggle for freedom from winter's icy imprisonment. Already beneath the frozen surface giant forces are moving in that direction. Purification is going on. It is the same with the human system. The lengthening days are approaching when the blood seeks to recover from its sluggish inactivity. It requires to be enriched with vitalizing and health-giving qualities to give tone, vigor, and health to the system.

For this needed and beneficial service nothing is so powerful as Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

Now is the time when your nature calls for help. Don't mistake; no other remedy equals Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy as a spring medicine. No other remedy will so quickly and certainly strengthen your nerves, invigorate your blood, and correct the action of all your organs. It will make you well and strong as it has done thousands of persons.

Mrs. Ira A. Bass, Littleton, N. H., says: "I want to thank Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for the good it has done me. My stomach was in such a condition that I could not keep anything on it except a little hot water, without terrible distress. I can now eat as well as any one need to be eating. A little of the medicine in the house and taking it after a hearty meal, and I can sleep now like a kitten, and O, what a God-sent blessing that is! I have taken fifteen bottles already, and I would have been in the churchyard now, but for the wonderful blessing, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and may the blessing of God follow Dr. Greene and give him a home in Heaven, is my earnest prayer."

No power of words can describe the wonderful good which this remedy is doing among the sick and suffering. Those who take it are cured. Thousands of people, at the advent of spring, while not exactly sick, are yet out of order or ailing in some way. Such people need this best of all spring medicines, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, to restore strength and vigor to the nerves, and new life and vitality to the blood.

Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York city, can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

ZOLA TRIAL MILDLY.
General Pellieux, However, Causes Several Sensations.

PARIS, February 16.—The approaches to the Palace of Justice and the lobbies showed no evidences of unusual excitement to-day just before the opening of the ninth day of the trial of MM. Emile Zola and Perrier. There was no demonstration upon M. Zola's arrival.

The presiding judge rejected M. Clemenceau's request of yesterday that he appoint a magistrate to question Madame De Boulanger regarding extracts from letters she has from Major Esterhazy.

General Pellieux, who conducted the investigation into the charges brought against Major Esterhazy, created a sensation by protesting against the acceptance of the evidence of "amateur experts, who have not seen the original 'bordereau,'" adding that he also desired to raise his voice "in the most emphatic manner against the officers who were called to the stand to testify in confidence in the hands of the army, at a time when danger is perhaps nearer than the people believe."

Continuing, General Pellieux said: "I will prove to you, here, in the papers in my hands, the officers who were called to the 'bordereau' belonged to the ministry of war, was an artilleryman, and was seconded for service on the staff. An infantryman could never in his life have spoken of the things which the 'bordereau' contained in Court."

"And now," exclaimed the General, raising his voice, "what remains of all this fabric? Not much. Yet they accuse us of acquitting a guilty man, in pursuance of orders. (Prolonged applause.) In conclusion," General Pellieux said, "I should have been glad if the court-martial had acquitted Dreyfus, as it would have shown there was no traitor in the army, for all of us to mourn for."

The presiding judge refused to allow M. Laborie to make a reply to General Pellieux.

M. Scheurer-Kestner, the former Vice-President of the Senate, called attention to alleged inaccuracies in the evidence of M. Teyssoniere, the handwriting expert. He said it was quite impossible that he (M. Scheurer-Kestner) had ever spoken to M. Teyssoniere of Major Esterhazy, because at the time referred to he had never heard Major Esterhazy's name. Therefore, he characterized that portion of the evidence as untrue.

M. Teyssoniere, the former Minister of Justice, was recalled, and he accused the general staff of conniving with M. Teyssoniere, in order to paralyze the action of Colonel Picquart.

M. Morlaud, a stenographer, affirmed that the "bordereau" was in Major Esterhazy's handwriting, and he wanted to demonstrate this with the use of the blackboard. The presiding judge, however, refused to allow him to do so, and M. Morlaud entered into a technical explanation of his assertion, amid manifest impatience upon the part of those present.

The court then adjourned.
